

The BIG on Bloor Festival of Arts and Culture, one of Toronto's best and most loved summer street festivals is a two-day, car-free summer street celebration of arts, culture and small business all in the Bloordale neighbourhood (Bloor Street West from Dufferin to Lansdowne).

BIG ON BLOOR FESTIVAL FEATURE EVENTS

The BIG Market Place: More than 200 arts, crafts, and information tables.

Card-Yard: Recycled materials animated by architecture, art and poetry.

Celebrate Here: Dufferin, Main and St Clarens Stage performances.

Savour Bloor: In the local stores, restaurants, patios.

BIG Awards: Community Appreciation.

JOUEZ: Participatory Art, a sequence of outstanding original, interactive, arts and culture programs, created by local artists, including stages at Dufferin and St Clarens. Curated by Carla Garnet, and sponsored by the Department of Canadian Heritage and the Toronto Arts Council.

HOW WE LIVE IN CITIES:

ART and ecology projects form an environmental educational site with a series of participatory, multi-disciplinary art and culture events. Curated by Darren Leu and Dyan Marie, supported by Castlepoint Numa, and Greybrook.

PlayFair: Games for children and adults.

After Hours: Local Bloordale restaurants and bars.
